

(Copy of Divorce decree of Fred Kesserling)

In Chancery of New Jersey

FINAL DECREE

Between
Frederick Kesserling
Petitioner and
Mary Kesserling
Defendant

105.612-OPRPT-ATG

This cause coming on to be heard at the October term eighteen hundred and ninety-seven of this court in presence of John H. Bonn of counsel with the petitioner and Corbin and Corbin of counsel with the defendant and the pleadings in the same having been read and testimony of witnesses having been taken and the arguments of the respecting counsel having been duly heard and the court having duly considered the said pleadings, testimony and arguments from all which it now appears satisfactory to the Chancellor that the marriage between the petitioner Frederick Kesserling and the defendant Mary Kesserling was solemnized and took place in the state of New Jersey and that the said petitioner was an actual resident of and inhabitant in this state at the time of executing the said petition. That the defendant has been guilty of the crime of adultery charged against her.

It is hereupon on this thirty-first day of December 1897, by his Honor Alexander T. McGill, Chancellor of the State of New Jersey by virtue of the power and authority of this court and of the acts of the legislature in such case made and provided, ordered and adjudged and decreed that the said petitioner Frederick Kesserling and the said defendant Mary Kesserling be divorced for the hand of matrimony for the cause aforesaid and the marriage between them is hereto dissolved accordingly and the said parties and each of them are and is hereby freed and discharged from obligations thereof.

Respectfully advised
H.C. Patney
V.C.

Alex T. McGill
